

Future Proof Your Career

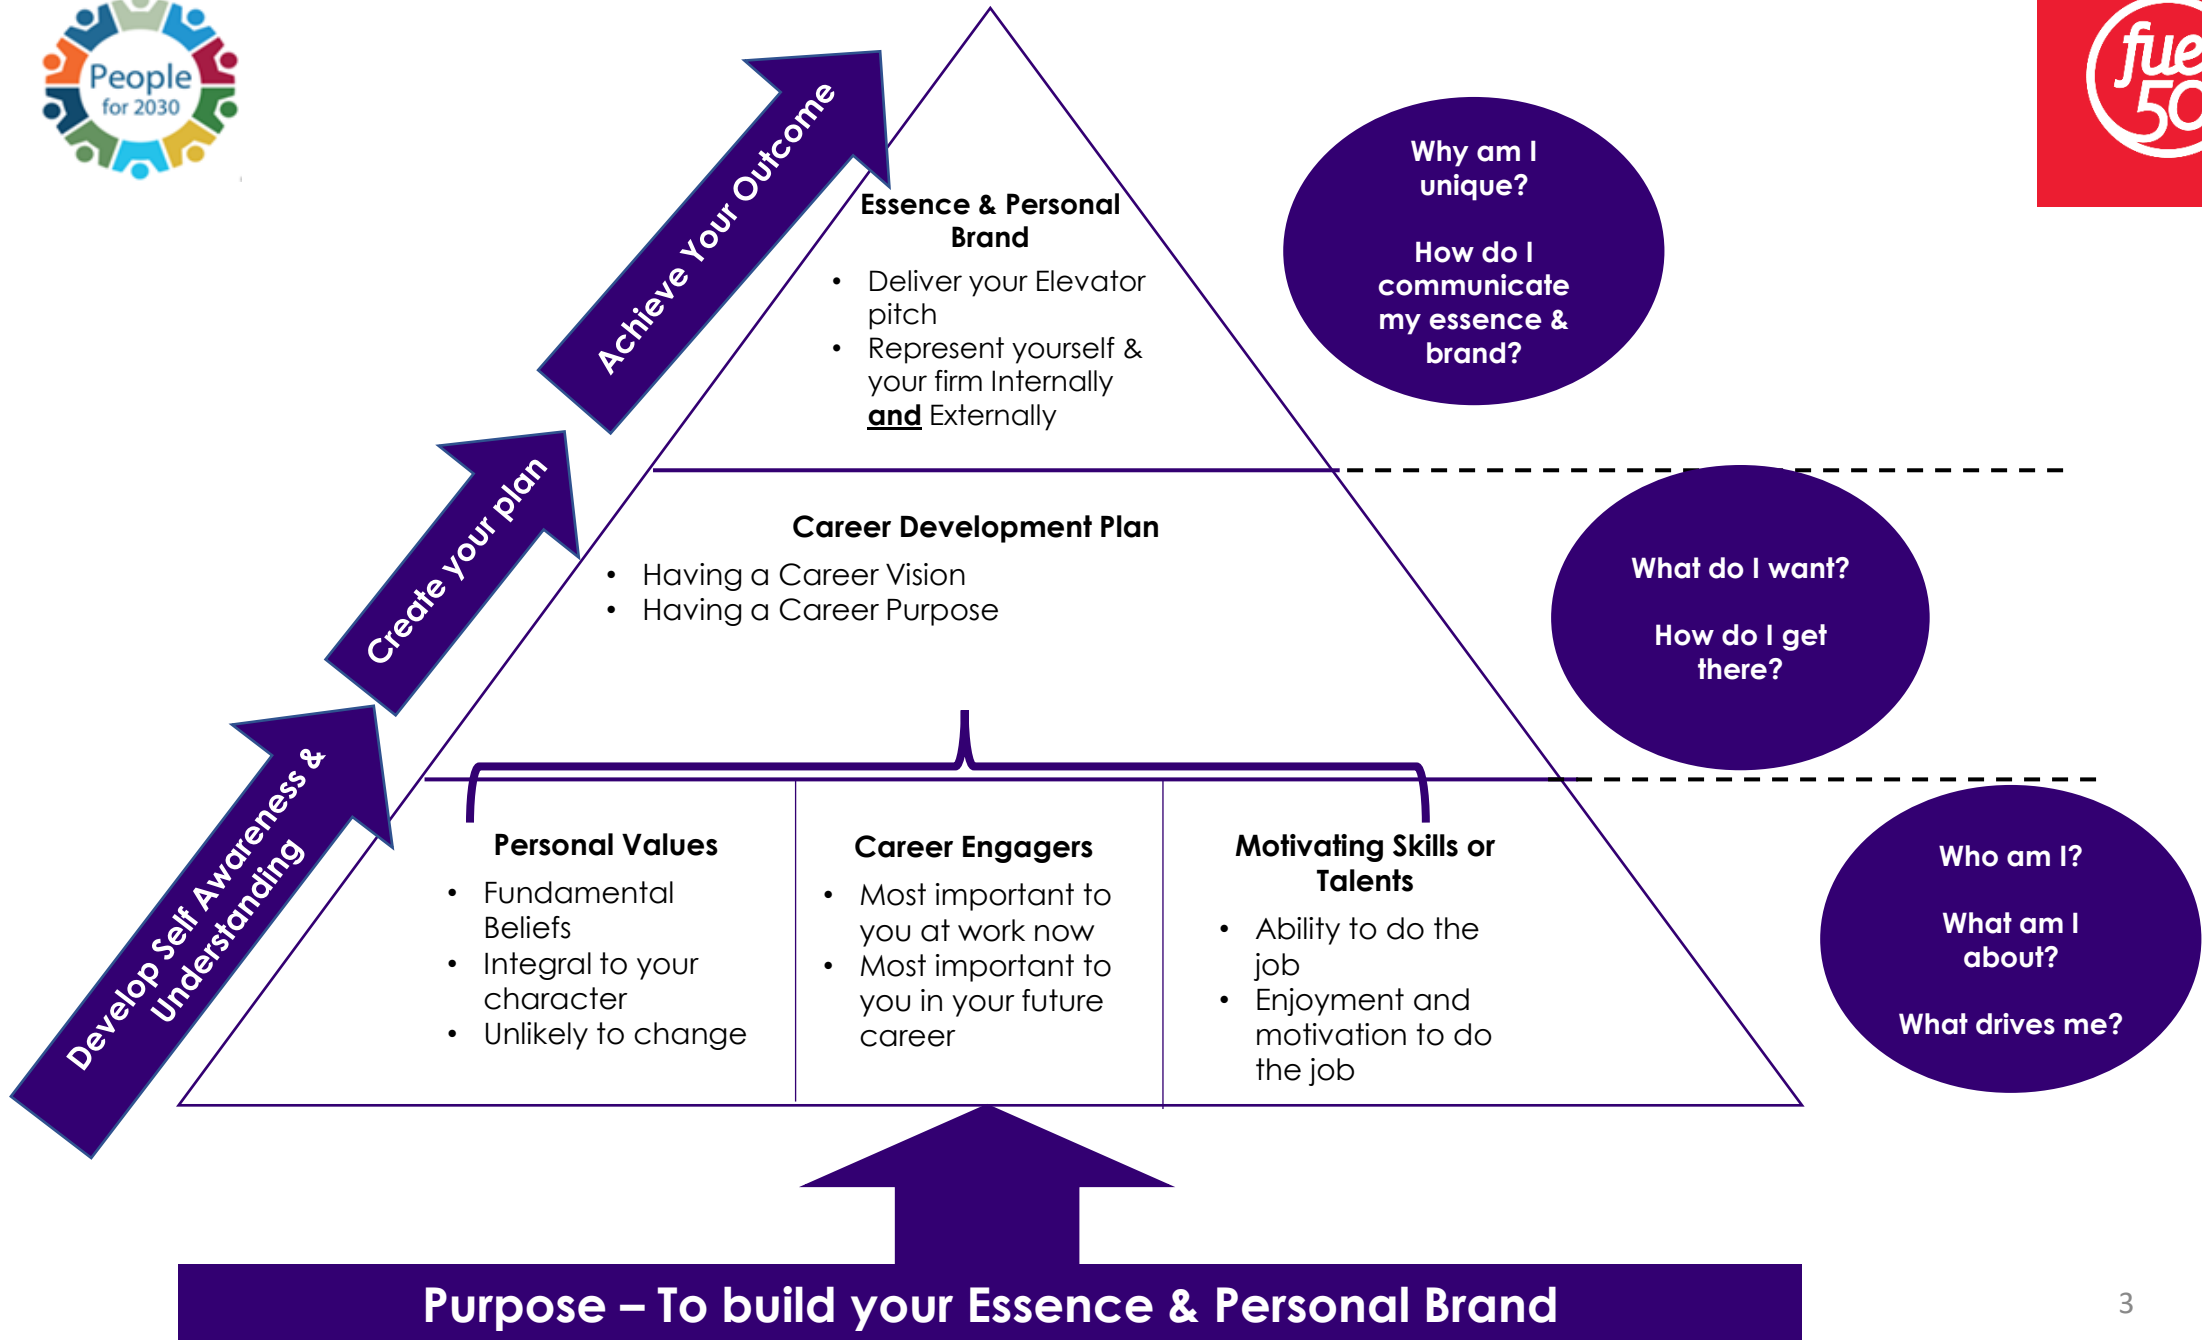

Future proof your career

- Ahead of the webinar on Managing Your Career we would like you to spend some time reflecting on your current career.
- We would like you to think about and make a note of:
 - your personal values
 - your career values and make a list of your top 7
 - your strengths and skills and how you use them.
- On the following slides is example of how to complete a personal branding model.
- We have also given you a example model to complete with your own details before or after the webinar
- There is no right or wrong for these activities so enjoy having time to think about you and your career.
