WHY?

- Prevention of Sexual Exploitation, Abuse and Harassment (PSEAH) is a priority for the entire UN system including the UNV Programme. No excuses. Zero Tolerance.
- As UN Volunteers you are part of the UN's global workforce. You are expected to uphold the highest levels of integrity and respect towards your peers, colleagues and local communities.

WHAT?

- Prior to deployment and to support your onboarding UN Volunteers have access to essential information on PSEA, reporting and code of conduct.
- Throughout your assignment, as UN Volunteer you have access to learning opportunities on PSEAH via the learning platform UNV e-CAMPUS.
- The UNV Programme regularly shares information, updates and resources on PSEAH with all UN Volunteers.
- Duty of care: UN Volunteers, being part of UN Personnel, are able to report and seek support from the UNV Programme and your host agencies.

HOW?

- Complete the UN's online courses on PSEA (here) and PSHAA (here). Both courses are mandatory for all UN Volunteers prior to deployment.
- Access essential information at the UN Volunteer Onboarding Portal.
- Access guidelines on reporting misconduct here on UNV eCampus.
- Join one of the PSEAH Workshops to:
  - Refresh your knowledge on PSEAH.
  - Discuss situations that you could encounter or witness.
  - Learn about reporting, support mechanisms and disciplinary measures.
  - Meet and exchange with other UN Volunteers.

WHEN?

- The 2-hour Workshops take place twice every month, running in 2022 with sessions in English, French and Spanish.
