1 The UNV Onboarding Programme

Onboarding is a critical moment that sets the stage for the experience as a UN Volunteer - with a lasting impact on your engagement, performance, and satisfaction with your assignment with the United Nations. Onboarding is a journey and new volunteers need a map! The Onboarding Programme for UN Volunteers offers:

- Access to the Onboarding portal for UN Volunteers: The central reference point for guidance on recruitment process and onboarding. 90-days onboarding checklist, policy, templates, learning programmes, and instructions to complete actions that get volunteers off to a good start. Access the UNV Onboarding portal here.
- Guidance on interviews and recruitment: Online resources that help candidates with job applications and CVs, interview preparation and career planning.
- UN and UNV mandatory online courses: Volunteers gain a clear understanding of important regulatory requirements, security measures, UN values and code of conduct.
- Onboarding workshops: A live event to orient and connect UN Volunteers, discover the role of UNV and UN Volunteers within the UN, and connect and share experiences with the UNV community.
- Orientation and induction by the UN host entity: This orientation - in the agency you will serve - typically includes welcome, a tour of the office, check-in process, introduction to the team, lots of information and resources and of course briefings on the substance of your assignment.
